Roddy Sun Child was a US Army Veteran who served during the Korean War. Roddy served as an Infantryman with B Company, 187th Infantry, 2nd Airborne Battle Group.

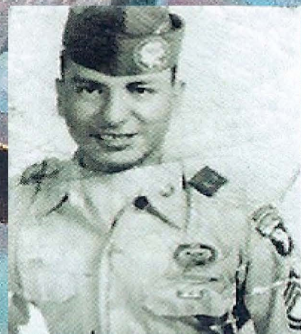

Roddy's awards include the Korean Service Medal w/ two bronze service stars, Combat Infantry Badge, Master Parachutist Badge, the United Nations Service Medal, Army of Occupation Medal w/Japan clasp and the National Defense Service Medal. After his service Roddy worked in various fields before serving on the Chippewa-Cree Council as a councilman (1985-1992) and chairman (1993-1995). After leaving the council he worked as an agent of the National Tribal Development Association.

In memory of John Roddy Sunchild for his service to his country and to the Chippewa Cree Tribe of Rocky Boy, Montana
